Reference Papers

Lay speak orientated Reference Papers provide important, unbiased technical information to help inform debate on hot topics being deal with inside and outside the industry.
Reference Papers are designed to make CIGRE technical papers more accessible, covering not just hard science but also opinions an views, so they can help to inform discussion around important topics. Reference Papers are not published to any set schedule, prepared as and when the need arises, as quickly as possible so that they can inform discussions.