

How to join CIGRE

Join CIGRE and connect with the power system community

JOIN CIGRE NOW!

CIGRE membership is open to all individuals, companies and organisations. Membership types include individual memberships, company and education institution memberships referred to as collective memberships. Depending on your country and National Committee rules the exact format of Collective memberships can vary. To follow is a summary of the six membership types.

Individual member I

Individuals involved in the Industry.

Individual member II

Individuals involved in the Industry, under 35 (discounted rate).

Individual member – student

Free membership is offered for full time tertiary students.

Collective member Ia > 500 employees

Public or private companies, including power system transmission and distribution utilities, scientific and technical organisations, research Institutes and administrative bodies.

Collective member Ib < 500 employees

Public or private companies, including power system transmission and distribution utilities, scientific and technical organisations, research Institutes and administrative bodies.

Collective member II

Universities and other educational bodies.

Costs and membership duration

Membership is on a calendar year basis and costs vary by country. Follow the join button above to find your countries pricing or to enquire further. Some NCs offer the first 6 months of membership free if you join part way through a year (after 1 July).

Members enjoy access to many resources and benefits, including:

- > Free access to CIGRE publications via eCIGRE
- > Collective Ia up to 50 accounts
- > Collective Ib up to 10 accounts

- > Collective II no limit on number of accounts
- > 930+ Technical Brochures
- > Free downloads of 12000+ technical publications
- > 6 Editions of ELECTRA per year
- > After two years save on the Paris Session!
- > 60+ In country and regional CIGRE organisations
- > Collaborate with experts

For all other enquiries regarding membership please contact us

Edition 2 | August 2022

Joining CIGRE and participation opportunities

Membership types

CIGRE membership is open to all individuals, companies and organisations. Membership types include individual memberships, company and education institution memberships referred to as collective memberships. Depending on your country and National Committee rules the exact format of Collective memberships can vary. To follow is a summary of the six membership types.

Individual member I

Individual member II
Under 35 (discounted rate)

Individual member – student

Free membership is offered for full time tertiary students

Collective member Ia < 500 employees

Public or private companies, including power system transmission and distribution utilities, scientific and technical organisations, research Institutes and administrative bodies.

Collective member Ib > 500 employees

Public or private companies, including power system transmission and distribution utilities, scientific and technical organisations, research Institutes and administrative bodies.

Collective member II

Universities and other educational bodies

Membership enjoy access to many resources and benefits, including:

- Free access to all CIGRE publications via e-cigre
  - Collective Ia up to 10 accounts
  - Collective Ib up to 50 accounts
  - Collective II no limit on number of accounts
- 800+ Technical Brochures
- Unlimited downloads of 14000+ technical publications
- 6 Editions of ELECTRA per year
- Save on the Paris Session!
- 60+ In country and regional CIGRE organisations
- Collaborate with experts

Costs and membership duration

Membership is on a calendar year basis and costs vary by country. Follow the join button below find your countries pricing or to enquire further. Some NCs offer the first 6 months of membership free if you join part way through a year (after 1 July).

JOIN NOW

For more on joining and participation at CIGRE download an info leaflet DOWNLOAD